

IN THE IOWA DISTRICT COURT FOR STORY COUNTY

STATE OF IOWA)
Plaintiff,)	Case No. FECR057583
V.)
COLLIN DANIEL RICHARDS,)	WAIVER OF RIGHT TO SPEEDY TRIAL
Defendant.)	(One Year Waiver)

The Defendant hereby waives his right to a speedy trial within one year after initial arraignment. In support of this waiver, Defendant states:

1. That Defendant realizes that the Constitution of the United States gives an accused a right to a speedy trial.
2. That Defendant realizes that Rule 2.33(c) of the Iowa Rules of Criminal Procedure also gives an accused a right to a speedy trial. Rule 2.33(2)(c) states:

"All criminal cases must be brought to trial within one year after the defendant's initial arraignment pursuant to R.Cr.P. 2.8 unless an extension is granted by the court, upon a showing of good cause."

3. That Defendant has been fully advised of the above-stated rights to a speedy trial and the ramifications thereof by Defendant's attorney, including the fact that the memory of witnesses fade with the passage of time; that witnesses may disappear or become unavailable; that delay may impair the effectiveness of Defendant's defense; that the community may view Defendant with suspicion during the pendency of the action thereby affecting Defendant's occupational and social endeavors; that Defendant will have to endure prolonged anxiety and concern and that Defendant is or can be subjected to incarceration pending trial, and taking into account all of these factors and considerations, Defendant deems it be in Defendant's best interest to waive the speedy trial right at this time and that trial be postponed until such dates as it may be scheduled for trial by the Court. Defendant reserves the right subsequently to withdraw this waiver upon written notice thereof to the Court and the State of Iowa.
